Gossamer

On November 4th and 5th, the Shrewsbury High School Performing Arts Department presented Gossamer. Where do dreams come from? What stealthy nighttime messengers are the guardians of our most deeply hidden hopes and our half-forgotten fears? Drawing on her rich imagination, two-time Newbery winner Lois Lowry confronts these questions and explores the conflicts between the gentle bits and pieces of the past that come to life in dreams, and the darker horrors that find their form in nightmares. This haunting story tiptoes between reality and the imagination. We follow two people - a lonely woman and an angry boy - facing their own pasts. On their journey they discover what they can be to one another, renewed by the strength that comes from tiny, caring creatures they will never see.

We've enjoyed watching you shine as co-host of The Not So Very Late Show, been captivated by your original productions in TV and Film class, rooted for you while competing as a Captain on the Esports team and looked on in awe as you created the most amazing works of art. Spring Musical

The Performing Arts Department was proud to present Babes in Arms a Rodgers and Hart classic. Set at a summer stock theatre on Cape Cod, Babes In Arms concerns a group of young apprentices and their conviction to mount an original revue, despite the underhanded attempts of the surly theatre owner to squash their efforts at every turn. Further complications stem from the overbearing stage mother of a beautiful ex-child star and the inflated ego of a hack southern playwright. But of course, the show must go on, and so it does — in a spectacular musical resolution of comeuppance, reconciliation, and romance.
